

BHARATI VIDYAPEETH COLLEGE OF PHARMACY, PALUS

Activity Report – Jayanti of Krantijyoti Savitribai Phule

Date: 03rd January 2026

Bharati Vidyapeeth College of Pharmacy, Palus and National Service Scheme (NSS) celebrated the Jayanti of Krantijyoti Savitribai Phule on 03rd January 2026. The program was organized to honour the life and legacy of Savitribai Phule, a pioneer of women's education, a social reformer, and an advocate for equality and women's empowerment. The celebration aimed to inspire students, faculty, and staff to uphold her ideals and reflect on the importance of education, equality, and social responsibility in today's society.

The program began with a photo puja and floral tribute to the portrait of Savitribai Phule, which was respectfully performed by Principal Dr. Ashok A. Hajare. This inaugural ceremony set a solemn and reflective tone for the event. Dr. Ashok A. Hajare addressed the gathering, emphasizing Savitribai Phule's pioneering role in promoting women's education and social reform. He motivated students and staff to follow her path of service, dedication, and commitment to societal development.

During the event, student Ms. Asia Mulla expressed her views, shedding light on Savitribai Phule's educational, social, and literary contributions, and conveyed gratitude for her enduring legacy.

The program was smoothly coordinated by Dr. Ravindra G. Gaikwad (NSS Co-ordinator), who ensured events success through their efficient management. The event witnessed an active participation from teaching and non-teaching staff, along with a number of students.

Photographs

Principal, all teaching and non-teaching staff

NSS Volunteer's

Dr. Ravindra G. Gaikwad
NSS In-Charge