Summary:

Bharati Vidyapeeth College of Pharmacy, Palus and National Service Scheme (NSS) organized the program titled “The Unbreakable Shield of Swarajya and the Eternal Flame of Dharma: Tribute to Chhatrapati Sambhaji Maharaj” to commemorate his valor, sacrifice, and unwavering commitment to Swarajya and Dharma. The program aimed to instill a sense of patriotism, courage, and dedication among students, faculty, and staff by reflecting on the extraordinary life and legacy of Sambhaji Maharaj.

The program commenced with a photo puja and floral tribute to the portrait of Sambhaji Maharaj, which was respectfully performed by Principal Dr. Ashok A. Hajare. This ceremonial beginning created a respectful and inspiring atmosphere for the event.

Principal Dr. Ashok A. Hajare addressed the gathering and highlighted the unparalleled bravery, intellectual strength, and sacrifice of Sambhaji Maharaj. He emphasized how Sambhaji Maharaj stood as a strong protector of Swarajya and upheld the values of Dharma even in the face of extreme adversity. He encouraged students to imbibe these qualities in their lives and contribute positively to society.

During the program, student Mr. Prathmesh Kanase and Mr. Ayush Katkar shared her thoughts, elaborating on the heroic life, military achievements, and supreme sacrifice of Sambhaji Maharaj. She expressed deep respect and gratitude for his contribution to the Maratha Empire and his enduring inspiration to future generations.

The program was efficiently coordinated by Dr. Ravindra G. Gaikwad (NSS Co-ordinator), whose dedicated efforts ensured the smooth execution and success of the event. The program was anchored by Mr. Akshay Nalawde, who conducted the proceedings in an organized and engaging manner. The program witnessed active participation from teaching and non-teaching staff, along with enthusiastic involvement of NSS students.

Overall, the event served as a powerful reminder of courage, sacrifice, and unwavering commitment to truth and righteousness, inspiring everyone present to follow the ideals of Sambhaji Maharaj in their personal and professional lives.
